Israeli press
has accused UN observers of bias against Israel; has demanded removal of Hutchison, chairman of Israeli-Jordanian commission, and UN chief observer Pennike.

*Relationship?
I-J is one of four
mixed armistice
commissions:
one for each
common border*

2. Israeli aggressive border policy: Dayan told UN official: "I will return fire with everything but atom bomb and not necessarily confine it to the area from which I am being fired on."

3. High tension resulting from aggressiveness. In Jerusalem Jordanian as well as Israeli civilians share military tension which appears at times nearly uncontrollable.
Pattern of fighting was: Civilian rock-throwingsniping-army units in action.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1. Iraqi prime minister and foreign minister have separately recommended West proceed with UN-sponsored internationalization of Jerusalem. Israel, emotionally interested in Jerusalem, would not accept this. Arab insistence on this point might only raise more problems in UN.

2. Individual Arabs will continue cause trouble. Armies and governments may be pushed by civilian pressure and Israeli aggressiveness to adopt potentially explosive defensive policies. Responsible Arabs, however, aware of Israeli military superiority, will not seek war.
